

December is here, it's time for cheer!
I've tucked clues out of sight.
You'll find your first clue somewhere near where you lay your head a night.

After chores, the elves relax
on cushions soft to rest their backs.
Where do you flop to watch a show?
Your next clue's hiding down below.

Reindeer love a bedtime read
(a story helps with flying speed!)
Check the place your books all stay.
Another clue is tucked away.

You've followed clues from near to far,
but now it's time to roam.
Step outside and take a peek where we drive away from home.

You're getting close, but take a break
And think of something clean.
A place that fills with water, spins,
and makes our messes clean.

Lights are twinkling, branches full,
and ornaments hang tight.
Your next clue's tucked among the charm of something glowing bright.

This clue is hiding somewhere cold (much colder than outside!)
It keeps our food from going bad,
a chilly place to hide.

The next clue sits in a quiet spot where packages arrive.
Go find the place we check each day when mail trucks come to drive.

Your hunt is nearly over now - just one last secret spot!
Check beneath the place we sit to eat a meal that's hot.
